Job Type: Full Time

Chief Risk Officer

Help Manage our Risk and be a Strategic Leader!

We have an exciting opportunity for someone to lead and proactively and effectively address risk management for our organization.

We offer a highly-competitive wage, career progression, ongoing learning and development, and an impact on our local community. We are open to a remote work arrangement, with travel to the Sunshine Coast as business needs require or join us on the beautiful Sunshine Coast and get the best of both worlds – a relaxing lifestyle filled with recreational activities including boating, hiking, and much more, while only a short 40-minute ferry trip from Vancouver.

What You'll Do

Reporting to the Chief Executive Officer, the Chief Risk Officer (CRO) is a member of the Executive Team, providing vital design and insight to the organization's risk management function in conjunction with the organization's strategic and annual plans. The purpose of the CRO role is to lead and proactively and effectively address risk management issues by ensuring processes are in place to identify operational and emerging risks. This position is responsible for the development of risk policies, while ensuring compliance with enterprise risk, governance and control policies and practices, as well as legal and regulatory requirements. In addition, this position is accountable to initiate action to improve growth and development of the risk function and acts as advisor to the CEO. The role manages relationships with external regulators, such as FINTRAC and service providers. The CRO is a trusted business partner who provides insight into the impacts of risk on the organization. The position drives cohesive and collaborative risk execution plans within the organization, which will translate to improved member experiences and revenue realization. The position also oversees the credit union's CAMLO, which is responsible for AML activities, proactive practices, and knowledge/application of legislative requirements. While project management and project contributions are responsibilities of all leaders within the organization, the CRO elevates and standardizes processes to support the growth and achievement of leaders across the organization.

What Does the Ideal Candidate Bring?

The preferred candidate has completed a bachelor's degree in business or a related field in addition to a minimum of 10 years' progressive experience in risk management, business administration, operations (with a minimum of 5 years' experience in a senior leadership role); an equivalent combination of education and related experience will be considered. We require an individual who has advanced knowledge of risk management methodologies, applicable regulatory/legislative controls, and CAMLO responsibilities. The successful candidate will be someone with proven strong leadership and strategic vision. We are looking for an individual who is interested in continuing to grow their risk management career with us.
